

Rapid Vitamin D Screening

RESULTS+

Patient-Centred Care
Digital Innovation

SpecCheck Rapid Vitamin D Test (with Results+ Patient Reporting)

Detect Vitamin D deficiency in just minutes. This new test is a semi-quantitative device designed to screen whole blood specimens at the following concentrations: <10 ng/mL, 10-30 ng/mL and >30 ng/mL.

Our new Results+ platform has been integrated with this test to quickly and efficiently provide test results to your consumers on the spot!

Detects the 25-Hydroxy Vitamin D compound

Obtain results in just 10 minutes

Print a report instantly with Results+

Enter patient info into Results+

Administer the Vitamin D Test

Print the patient test report

Patient-Centric Services

Improve patient care by offering value added screening services in-store. Prescribe on the spot treatment for better health outcomes.

Digital Innovation

As healthcare delivery evolves and digital innovation persists, we want to help bridge the gap between medical device and software. Capture test images and print and/or email results with one click of a button!

Accuracy & Reliability

Excellent correlation to laboratory results. Quick, accurate & reliable results for enhanced healthcare.